

HUMAN SERVICES COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT POLICY STATEMENT

I. PURPOSE AND PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A. Library Collection Development Objective
Description of User Groups Supported

D. Areas of Established Specialization

Areas of programmatic strength and established specialization include: research methodology, assessment, program evaluation, school counseling, mental health counseling, generalist social work practice, child welfare, school social work, rural issues, social justice, life span development, educational psychology, medical social work, policy formation and analysis, family violence, psychopathology, supervision, field education, grant writing, psychology of learning, behavior modification, art therapy, career counseling, counseling skills, ethics, family therapy, postmodernism, systems theory, cultural competence and diversity, cybernetics, teacher education, social cognitive theory, and crisis counseling.

II. TREATMENT OF SUBJECT DEPTH

A. Treatment of Depth

Counseling & Educational Psychology

SUBJECT SUBDIVISIONS	COLLECTING LEVEL
Arts—Therapeutic use	3
Child psychotherapy	4
Cognitive behavioral therapy	4
Counseling	4

Diversity in couple and family therapy	4
Families (i.e., Family sociology)	4
Family relations	4
Family social work	4
Family therapy	4
—Methods (i.e., interventions)	4
—Moral and ethical aspects	3
Family violence	4
Gender identity	4
Interpersonal relations	4
Marital psychotherapy	4
Stress (Psychological)	4
Substance abuse	4
System theory	4

Social Work

SUBJECT SUBDIVISIONS	COLLECTING LEVEL
Child welfare	4
Community mental health services	4
Cultural pluralism	4
Evaluation research (Social action programs)	4
Gerontology	4
Human development	4
Interviewing	4
Medical social work	4
Mental Health	4
Proposal writing for grants	4
Policy sciences	1
Public policy	1
Public welfare	4
School social

Social workers—Supervision of	4
Social justice	4

B. Specific Delimitations

Formats collected: