VALDOSTA STATE UNIVERSITY

BIOLOGY 2900--FALL 2012

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. J. A. NIENOW

IF I SEE OR HEAR YOUR CELL PHONE DURING THE EXAM, YOU WILL BE TOLD TO TURN YOUR EXAM IN IMMEDIATELY. IF YOU LEAVE THE EXAM ROOM DURING THE EXAM FOR ANY REASON, YOU WILL BE TOLD TO TURN IN YOUR EXAM IMMEDIATELY. Estimated total from example points.

LABORATORY GRADES: Periodically you will be asked to complete informal and formal reports of your lab work. You should also be parted for occasional announced and unannounced quizzes. Estimated total from laboratory reports and quizzes points.

ORAL REPORTS: All students will be required to prepare and deliver a 7 minute talk on a microbiological subject (see separate hand@RESENTATION OF AN ORAL REPORT IS MANDATORY. FAILURE TO GIVE AN ORAL REPORT WILL RESULT IN A ZERO FOR THE ENTIRE LAB PORTION OF THE GRADE!!! Points for this talk will be distributed as follow/insninary information from the 10exptoints; copies wo references from the scientific litera-1200 epoints; detailed outline of the 400 points; printouts of the power point slides 50 points; presentation of the oral@pointsEstimated total for the oral report ass2000 points.

GRADING: Your grade will depend on how well you do on the exams, quizzes, and exemption of the exams and exemption of the exams are supported by the example of the example

SCHEDULE OF LECTURES AND LABS BIOLOGY 2900, SPRING 2005

Note: Pacing and testing dates may be changed if the need arises. Attend class regularly.

WEEK 1	-	-
1-10	LABOrientation; Lab safety; Brightfield microstamply;

2-14	LABFinish plate counts; Effectiveness of alcohol as an Binst saptioiz	ex. 32
2-15	LECTUREReview of DNA replication/protein synthesis	Chapters 7
2-16	LAB

4-04	LABBacteriological analysis of urine; Isolation of oral streptococci	suppl.
4-05	LECTUREAdaptive immunity	chapter 16
4-06	LABContinue bacteriological analysis of urine	ex. 43, suppl.
4-07	LECTURE	